Call to Worship – Rev. Brian Q. Newcomb (Psalm 149 The Message Translation)

One: Hallelujah! Sing to God a brand-new song, praise him in the company of all who love him.

Many: Let all Israel celebrate their Sovereign Creator; Zion's children exult in their King.

One: Let them praise his name in dance; strike up the band and make great music!

Many: And why? Because God delights in his people, adorns plain folk with salvation garlands.

One: Let true lovers break out in praise, sing out from wherever they are sitting, shout the high praises of God.

We are anxious about problems which go unresolved. We are worried about events beyond our control like this horrible pandemic. We do not easily let go. For mistakes we cannot redeem, for tasks left undone, for uncertain goals, we need your forgiveness and ask for your understanding. For recovery of strength and enthusiasm, we pray for your Spirit. For fullness of life, generous hearts, and contented souls, we pray to be followers of Christ Jesus. In your mercy, restore us and lead us. Amen.

- 2. Forgive we now each other's faults as we are faults confess; and let us love each other well in Christian holiness.
- 3. Let us recall that in our midst dwells God's begotten Son; as members of his body joined, we are in him made one.
- 4. Love can exclude no race or creed if honored be God's name; our common life embraces all who Maker is the same.
