Fifth Sunday After Pentecost
Online Worship Bulletin

Opening Music – (please note – the music will play approximately 10 minutes prior to 10:00 a.m.)

Welcome – Rev. Michelle Wilkey

Call to Worship – Emily Phillips

One: We come to this service where we bring our needs and longings.

Many: Each of us has traveled different roads and conceived diverse thoughts this week.

One: But underneath our differences lies the same basic need for love.

Many: That's why we are here-to admit to each other our need for love.

One: Let us celebrate in worship the most marvelous fact of the universe-God loves us and accepts us just as we are.

"America the Beautiful," Samuel A. Ward, arr. Darwin Wolford

Call to Confession –

Unison Prayer of Confession – Christ Jesus, we have lived as if we did not need you, pretending that life is what we make it. In those exceptional moments of openness when we received the gift of faith, we have assumed it was given for ourselves alone. Awaken us by your Spirit to fuller dimensions of faith. Lead us to find in our neighbors the opportunities for love, in the social order the possibilities for justice, and in the affairs of nations the potential for peace. Reform our attitudes and behavior until in every circumstance we may, by your grace, be instruments of your saving Word. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon –

Pastoral Prayer, Silent Prayers and Lord's Prayer –

Hymn – "This is My Song"

(Tim & Lyn will play while you sing, together, at home.)

This is my song, O God of all the nations, a song of peace for lands a far and mine. This is my home, the country where my heart is; here are my hopes, my dreams, my holy shrine; but other hearts in other lands are beating with hopes and dreams as true and high as mine.

My country's skies are bluer than the ocean, and sunlight beams on clover leaf and pine; but other lands have sunlight too, and clover, and skies are everywhere as blue as mine. O hear my song, thou God of all the nations; a song of peace for their land and for mine.
